Our Daily Bread New Dates Added!

Wednesday, May 6 and Wednesday May 13

Sandwiches Needed

Thank you so much for providing sandwiches last week. We had such a wonderful response and provided 550 sandwiches! We have added two more sandwich dates- May 6 and May 13.

When we dropped off sandwiches, we discovered that peanut butter and jelly sandwiches are in high demand. They were out when we arrived and immediately started handing out our peanut butter sandwiches. All sandwiches are needed, but if you happen to have peanut butter and jelly at home, you might consider using it to make sandwiches this week.

Our Daily Bread is a soup kitchen that serves the homeless population of Cincinnati (1730 Race Street). The kitchen has asked for help in providing simple sandwiches for the homeless.

You can help by purchasing sandwiches or making sandwiches at home. Drop off sandwiches on Tuesday afternoon or evening or on Wednesday morning before 9:00 AM.

Procedure:

- 1- No need to contact me about the sandwiches this week, just drop them off. Our Daily Bread is happy to take whatever we can donate.
- 2- Clean your kitchen counters with antibacterial cleaner.
- 3- Wash your hands thoroughly. If you have gloves, wear them to prepare the food.
- 4- Wear a mask and cover your hair with a hat or tie it back if long.
- 5- Make ham and cheese, turkey and cheese or peanut butter and jelly sandwiches. (No condiments please.)
- 6- Place sandwiches in a sandwich baggie and label contents (Ham, Turkey, PB&J).
(As an alternative, you are welcome to pick up sandwiches from any sandwich company- Penn Station, Jimmy Johns, Jersey Mikes, Subway etc.)

7- Deliver sandwiches on Tuesday to Jennifer Taylor (6305 Graves Road, 45243). I will have coolers on the porch for contactless drop off.

8- Take a picture making the sandwiches for us to share with the congregation.

"In His name, lending a helping hand to others."

Worship Bulletins and Coloring Sheets

Here is a worship bulletin and a coloring sheet to go with the lesson for this week.

They devoted themselves to the apostles' teaching and fellowship, to the breaking of bread and the prayers. Awe came upon everyone, because many wonders and signs were being done by the apostles. All who believed were together and had all things in common; they would sell their possessions and goods and distribute the proceeds to all, as any had need. Day by day, as they spent much time together in the temple, they broke bread at home and ate their food with glad and generous hearts, praising God and having the goodwill of all the people. And day by day the Lord added to their number those who were being saved. Acts 2:42-47

Family Sunday School

The video for this week is great. I think it speaks to the some of the sadness that kids maybe feeling right now. I really like the ending song, because it is an echo song that the kids can easily sing. I am not including the activities for this week, because I didn't think they were a good fit for our families. I included activity sheets that go with the same Bible story from Illustrated Ministry above. It is nice to have so many free choices!

We buried the Alleluia's for Lent. Now that we are in the Easter season, let's celebrate with Alleluia butterflies. Print out the attached butterfly. You may color it or leave it in black and white. Take a picture with the butterfly and send it to Amy Clark (aclark@indianhillchurch.org). Watch for the Alleluia butterflies in a future worship service.
