

Indian Hill Church

EPISCOPAL † PRESBYTERIAN

Trinity Sunday Worship and Announcements

"Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything that I have commanded you. And remember, I am with you always, to the end of the age." Matthew 28:19-20

God of delight, your Wisdom sings your Word
at the crossroads where humanity and divinity meet.
Invite us into your joyful being where you know and are known in each beginning,
in all sustenance,
in every redemption,
that we may manifest your unity in the diverse ministries you entrust to us, truly reflecting your triune majesty
in the faith that acts, in the hope that does not disappoint,

and in the love that endures. Amen.

A Virtual Week of Learning, Prayer, and Action
June 18-27
No cost, Registration Required

You are invited to participate in teach-ins and learn ways forward together through actions we can take in our own communities, mourn the loss the pandemic has wrought on our world and imagine the new world breaking in through vigils, practice joy and care as we connect with each other even from a distance, and imagine the world we are trying to create together through daily devotionals.

Diocese of Southern Ohio
Anti-Racism Training
June 27, 2020 via Zoom
10 A.M. - to 3 P.M.
No cost, Registration Required

The Anti-racism Training model of the Episcopal Church, Seeing the Face of God in Each Other, is designed to make us all more aware of how society's racist past still haunts us today. Through self-examination and sharing our stories, we come to learn more about how our behavior affects others, and how our society, institutions and churches affect how we think and feel about others. After antiracism training, you will never watch the news the same again! (from TEC website)

Presbytery of Cincinnati
Anti-Racism Resources
For Adults, Teens and Children

We are Resurrection people, and there is (always) a glimmer of hope – in the dialogues the Cincinnati police are holding with the young black protesters (Assistant Police Chief Neudigate engaged and spoke with young black protesters, and then gave them his phone number so they could continue to talk), in the eager faces of the young – black and white – in the downtown protests, in the coming together of Cincinnati faith communities, in the businesses and organizations giving out water and food. It's a start, and we must actively build on it.

Presbytery of Cincinnati

So the Presbytery is offering you some ideas, resources, places to go for information. What follows is a partial list of resources you can use for your own discernment and processing, with congregations, in Bible studies, conversations, even with children. These are hard conversations. The really important ones always are.

With love and blessings and admiration – Lisa Algood

Just Mercy Movie (PG-13) Streaming Free in June

Warner Bros. has announced it is making its 2019 legal drama “Just Mercy” available for free on digital platforms such as Amazon and the Apple TV app throughout June in response to the death of George Floyd. As protests continue to take place across the nation, Warner Bros. is hoping the Michael B. Jordan-starring drama can be used as an educational tool to help people learn more about systemic racism in American society.

“We believe in the power of story,” a statement from Warner Bros. reads. “Our film ‘Just Mercy,’ based on the life work of civil rights attorney Bryan Stevenson, is one resource we can humbly offer to those who are interested in learning more about the systemic racism that plagues our society.

For the month of June, ‘Just Mercy’ will be available to rent for free across digital platforms in the US.”

2. Add other items such as individual cereals, applesauce, fruit cups, shelf-stable puddings, oatmeal, peanut butter crackers, JIF peanut butter to go cups, raisins, chips, juice box, granola bar, pretzels, microwave popcorn, cheese crackers).
3. Seal items in a gallon Ziploc bag.
